

A stylized illustration of an ophthalmologist performing surgery on a patient in an operating room. The surgeon is wearing blue scrubs and a surgical cap, and is focused on the patient's eye. The patient is lying on an operating table, and the surgical field is illuminated by a large overhead light. The background shows various pieces of medical equipment and the sterile environment of an operating room.

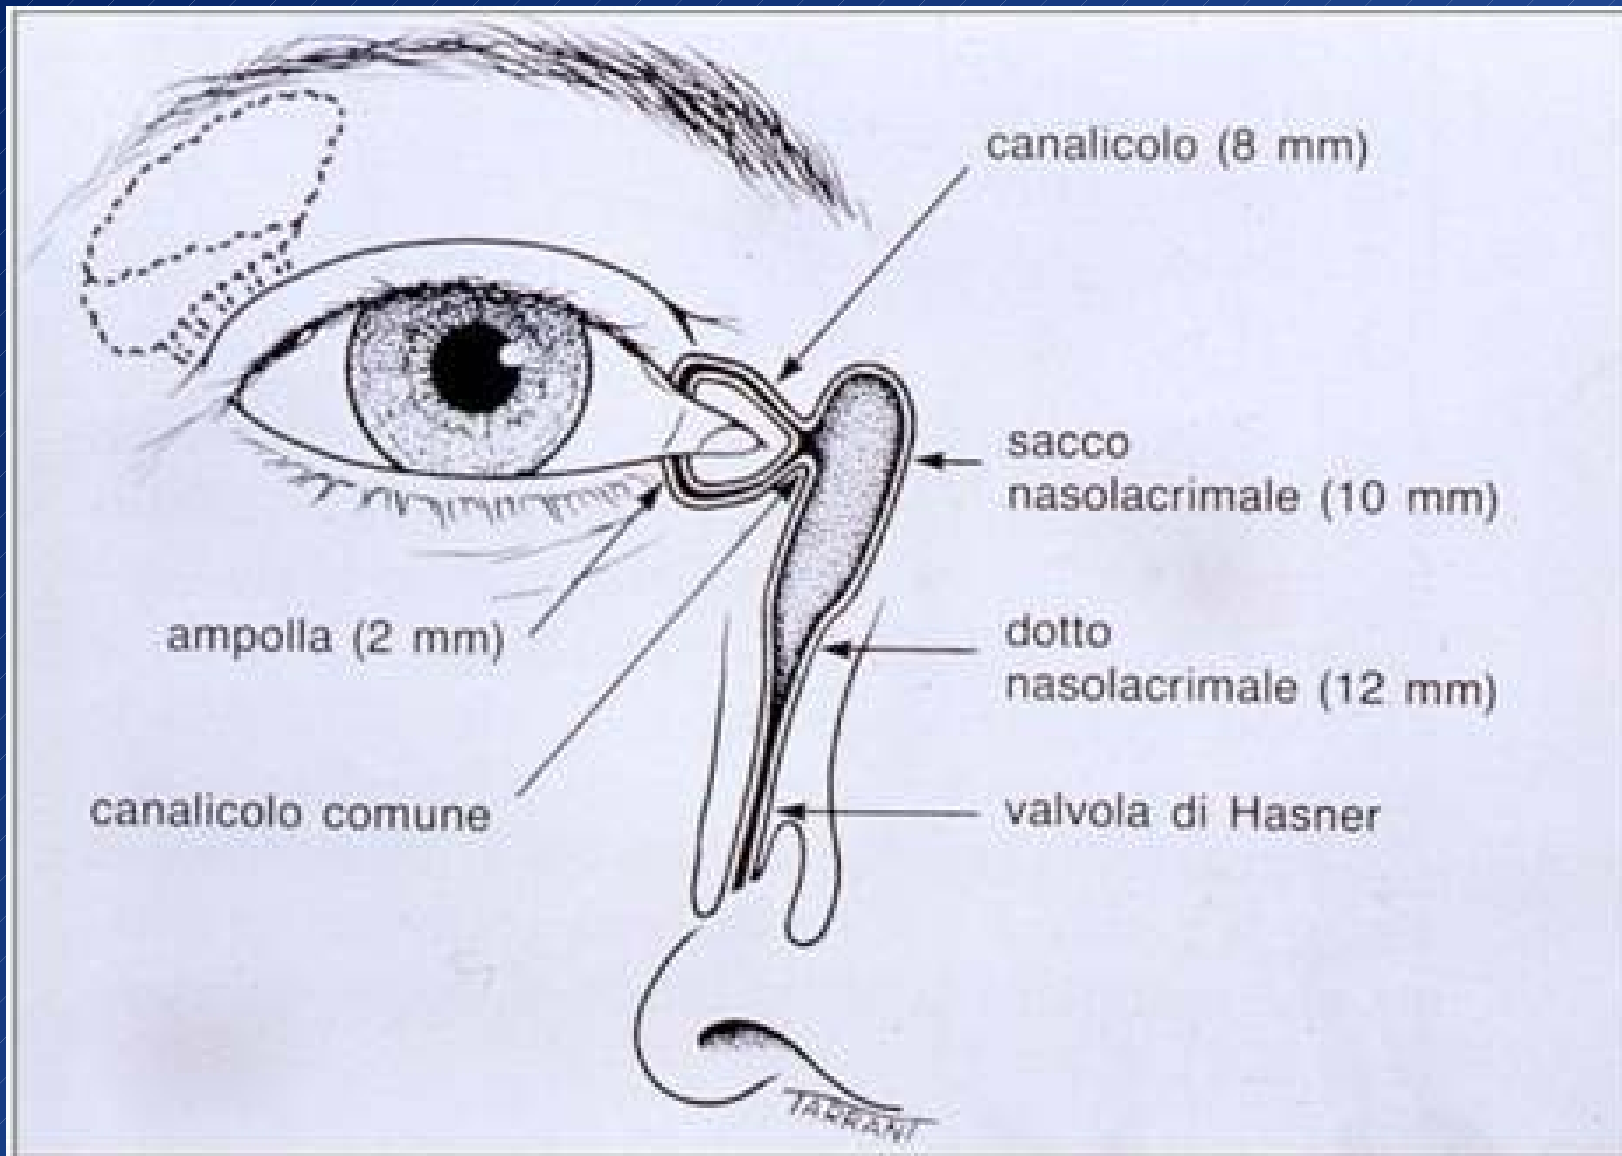

Le tecniche chirurgiche in oculistica

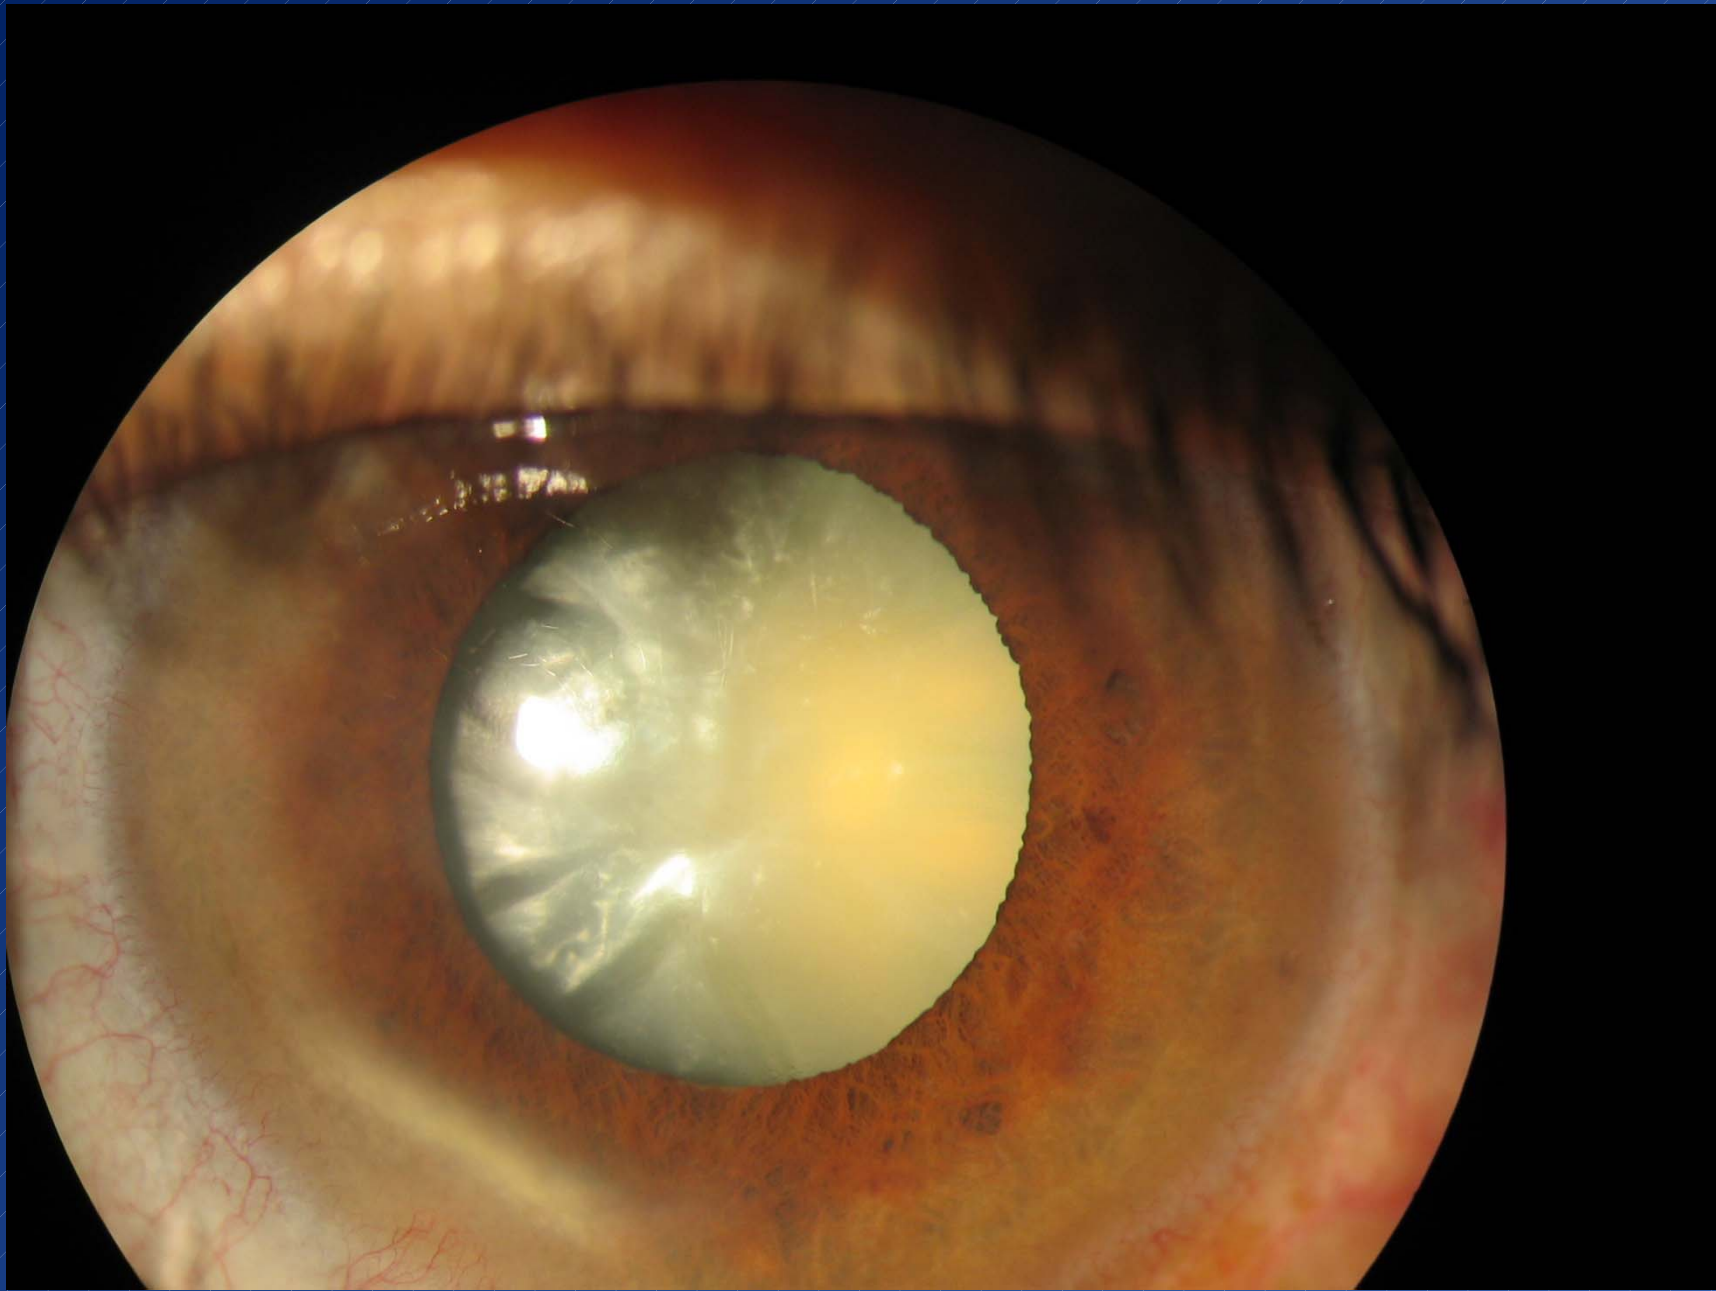

Francesco Calcagno

Day surgery: Modelli Organizzativi-Gestionali
e Tecniche Chirurgiche ed Anestesiologiche Correlate

Genova 27 Maggio 2014

INSTITUTO BARRAQUER (BARCELONA)

Colección
Científico Medical GAUMONT
Año 1917

